ASTIGMATISM.

What It Is, and How Corrected.

Astigmatism or Irregular Vision is one of the most common of all the refractive errors. It is due to the irregular curvature of the film known as the Cornea. Of course no instrument is sufficient to correct it, but in the hands of a thoroughly efficient and competent Eye specialist the ophthalmologist reveals the exact condition of the eye. In such an institution as this, if your eyes need attention have DR. J. T. JOHNSON to put them under this wonderful treatment. Office hours 8:30 to 12:30; 2 to 6. 302 S. Elm St.

WILL GET THERE YET. The Hook and Ladder Boys Not Easily Baffled.

The hook and ladder company seems to have more than its share of bad luck, but every misfortune tends to add strength to the boys' determination, and they expect yet to win some prizes at the tournament. One of their new horses sprained his leg while at work on Arlington street a few days ago, and is unfit for services in the tournament races. The company held a meeting last night, and it was decided to purchase a horse, train him, win some prizes with him at the tournament, and then sell him, keeping the present horse for use in the future. Banks Boone was elected captain of the running team.

An Accomplished Plumber.

See Odell Hardware Co.'s new ad. They have secured the services of Mr. John Shanks as foreman—of their plumbing department. Mr. Shanks is one of the most accomplished plumbers in the country. In securing his services it has been the aim of the Odell Hardware Co. to bring their plumbing department up to the high standard of excellence which they have sought to attain in all other departments of their business. They propose to give entire satisfaction in this department, being unwilling to conduct any branch of their business on any other basis. Prices will be just as low as can be made, when first-class material and workmanship are taken into consideration. See them for any estimate you may want on work.

Some Good Work.

A drawing of the front of the new Grissom building, now in course of construction on South Elm street, is displayed in a window at Grissom & Fordham's drug store. The building will be one of the pretties on the street. A Telegram man has been shown the drawings for the interior of the drug store, which will occupy the first floor. It will undoubtedly be the most beautifully finished and furnished store in the state. Architect J. H. Hopkins, of this city, drew the plans for the building and it will be a monument to his skill.

Votaries of Pleasure.

Joe Phillips and Charles Lamb, representatives of the gallantry and the chivalry of the Telegram squeeze, left on the excursion today for Wilmington. The Prowler tells us that when he last saw these two impetuous and bold young men they were seated in the midst of a broad expanse of electrified femininity, discoursing the most entrancing rhetoric, which the smitten atmosphere transmitted with wireless telegraphy to the blunt locomotive, eliciting a bleat of agony which jarred countless excursioners from their seats.

Mother Goose to be There.

Dear Mr. Telegram—We are so sorry you did not get our letter asking you to tell everybody we were all well now and to hear Goo-e, who will be with us this afternoon and evening in the Lindsay street school group, and will hold the reception we told you about last week, but we trust to you to make it known in today's paper, which everybody reads who expects to know all that is going on in our city and everywhere. Yours for a gala day and for missions,

Junior Auxiliary of St. Barnabas Church.

Two Accidents Yesterday.

Two of the Southside Hose Company's men were painfully, but not seriously hurt yesterday afternoon while they were practicing on Summit avenue. Mr. Henry Donald fell from the wagon during a swift run and was slightly bruised on the side. He did not abandon the practice for this and during the next run was hit in the face by a hose coupling and quite badly hurt. Herbert Reynolds also fell from the wagon and was bruised on the left arm and leg. Both the men will be unfitted for practice for a few days.

Fatal Shooting Near Marion.

A special to the Raleigh News and Observer says that Dan Jarrett and Ed Hall had a bloody fight in Halltown, five miles north of Marion. Jarrett stabbed Hall several times in the abdomen and breast, and the physician says he is likely to die. Hall shot at Jarrett several times without effect. The latter took to the woods and has thus far eluded arrest.

An Old Excursionist.

Mrs. Rachael Kirkman, of Friendship, mother of Messrs. A. G. and S. A. Kirkman, went on the excursion to Wilmington this morning. Mrs. Kirkman is 83 years old, but is yet possessed of remarkable strength and vigor.

Strawberry Cream.

The West End baseball team has made arrangements with the New York strawberry growers to get just enough late strawberries to make five gallons of strawberry cream for the West End lawn party, next Friday night, at the Academy lawn.

FIVE STORY TENEMENT BURNS

FIVE WILL VERY LIKELY DIE

One Hundred and Seventy-five Persons Occupied the Building.

Many Thrilling Escapes.

By Wire to THE TELEGRAM.

New York, July 11—A big five-story tenement house on Monroe street was burned this morning. Twenty-eight persons were injured or overcome by smoke, including one entire family of eight, five of whom may die. The tenants were awakened at four o'clock this morning by the halls filling with smoke. Police and firemen hurried to the rescue. There were many thrilling escapes. Harry Beasak, with his wife and six children, who were on the sixth floor, were found unconscious. Three of the family were badly burned and overcome by the smoke. The baby, alone unburnt, was found asleep in its cradle. One hundred and seventy-five persons inhabited the tenement.

LATER—NOT SO BAD.

New York, July 11—The latest reports make only thirteen injured at the fire, three of whom may die.

W. E. Johns & Son have decided not to build at present but have leased the commodious structure known as the Wheeler building and will manufacture their goods at this place as soon as fixtures, etc., can be placed in order, which will be about the first of August. The company will make a line of parlor suits, lounges, matresses, etc.

Vernie Hedgecock is confined to his room with an attack of fever at his home in the northwestern part of the city.

Joe Jackson, who was shot four times a few days since and whose wounds at the time were thought would prove fatal, was on the streets again today. He looks rather "under the weather," but seems to be in good spirits and getting along all right.

Mr. and Mrs. D. L. Clark left this morning for points in Chatham county, going by private conveyance. Mr. Clark goes on business connected with his land which is situated near Pittsboro. They will remain away about two weeks. "Uncle David" never goes to bed without a pipe in his mouth.

TUESDAY, JULY 11, 1899.

PLACE VANCE'S THERE.

A special from Washington to the Raleigh Morning Post says:

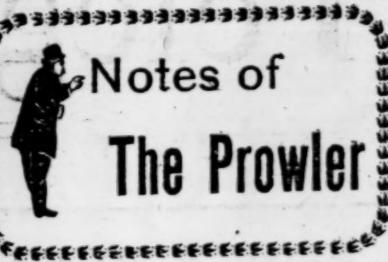

The enthusiasm aroused throughout North Carolina by the Elliston statue of the late Senator Vance has extended to the North Carolina colony here and has led to the suggestion that it would be eminently fitting and proper for the state of North Carolina to place a statue of Vance in Statuary Hall in the Capitol here. The old North state is unrepresented. Many of the states have accepted the invitation of congress to place two statues of their most eminent men in the capitol of the nation. Most of the eastern states have done so and one or two of the southern states. Virginia is represented by her foremost citizen, George Washington, Massachusetts by Webster, Missouri by Benton and Blair, Michigan by Cass, Illinois by Lincoln, Connecticut by Greene and Trumbull, and so on; but so far North Carolina has not moved. In days long since passed a move was made to have a statue of Nathaniel Macon and Gen. Nash erected, but even this effort failed.

While North Carolina has been prolific of patriots and statesmen, perhaps she never produced one more charmingly original, more vigorous mentally, more whole-souled and representative of the people than Zeb Vance. The North Carolina colony here, all of whom knew and loved him, are looking forward to a concerted movement being made to have his statue placed among the heroes and statesmen of the nation in the capitol, the scene of his greatest and most brilliant forensic efforts.

We hope the movement will be successful. We would prefer the noble Vance to represent our character, our statesmanship, our chivalry, and all the other qualities which are dearest to the hearts of true North Carolinians, than any other man, living or dead, and we are sure the majority of the people of the state are of the same sentiment. Many a stranger to our land would pause to gaze with admiration upon the imposing figure and noble countenance of the one who held the hearts of his people in a warmer clasp than ever did man before or since.

It has been suggested that three extra statues of Vance from the model selected be made—one to go in the rotunda of the capital at Washington; one for Independence Square, Charlotte, and one for the city of Asheville. And the suggestion of the News and Observer is very good that if the cost could be put within their reach, there are other towns and cities in the state which would like to have one, notably the capital of Vance county. We hope the suggestion will take practical shape.

Rev. A. J. Code, colored, and his fellow preachers, of this city, are deserving of the greatest commendation for their efforts to hinder the proceeding of the colored excursion which was to have left here yesterday for Roanoke. Happily, they succeeded in stopping it, thereby saving the city several hundred dollars.

The Kissing Bug.

It is all settled now. The Prowler, with whom our readers are well acquainted, dropped in yesterday morning, knocked a handful of ashes out of his pipe, threw them into a mass of old papers, and remarked as follows:

"The kissing bug (melanoles pilipes, or something equally abstrusus) is a quantity whose mission on earth is to sting a very few people and scare the life out of the rest of the human race. It is a native of the Cannibal Islands, and early in life contracted habits that do not become a pious and self-respecting bug. It is not vicious and cannibalistic by nature, however, but is obviously the victim of environment.

"The inveterate kisser in question was first introduced into this country at least three weeks ago, by an old maid, with the villainous purpose of using it as an instrument of torture with which to wreak her vengeance upon certain American maidens, whom she envied with a bitter, clammy, serpentine envy. The aforesaid old maid, with great gobs of tenacity of purpose, succeeded in smuggling it across right under the noses (under the nose seems to be the base of the bug's operations) of the ever wary and well-fed customs officers.

"The size of the kissing-bug may be located anywhere between a pumpkin seed and a canvased ham. This conclusion was reached after untiring research, and by averaging up the different reports from all the precincts. It also required great mental strain.

"The color of the subject under discussion is dark and cheerless. It wears an uncertain number of short, itchy legs. What said legs are used for is an affair of its own, and I am too well bred to pry into the private life of a dignified and very fashionable bug.

"The kissing-bug has no teeth at the present writing, notwithstanding the fact that some people, regardless of veracity, and without the fear of God in their hearts, proclaim to a tired and nauseated public that they have been 'biten' by the kiss bug. However, it is impossible to foretell future developments.

"The bug usually plies its avocation between sunset and sunrise on any night in the week. Also on the 1st of the month. Said avocation is plied by means of a small tentacle (whatever that is) which it carries around with it, and with which it plants its deadly virus into the human anatomy.

"Upon arising in the morning the favored person finds that his or her face is puffed up like a mountain cheese in the sunshine, and forthwith hurries to his or her friends to announce the glad, frolicsome news that the kissing-bug has performed its functions.

"The kissing-bug seems to have a preference for the ruby, succulent lips of the comely maiden (which trait I heartily endorse).

"The rate of speed at which the kissing-bug travels through space cannot be computed. It has been known to administer its own peculiar kiss to the lips of a beautiful, clinging, coddling maiden in Boston, and then in 31 minutes and 27 seconds get in its work upon the tallow countenance of a two-cent dime in Middle Georgia.

"I wish to announce right here, by way of a free advertisement, that if the bug fad continues in robust health (and who doubts it?) I will start a kissing-bug farm next season, where I will be able to supply all comers while they wait. The bugs will be sold outright (no royalty), at so much per bug, or hired out at so much per shot, and found.

"If any flop-eared pelican doubts the correctness of the above statements concerning the life and character of the kissing-bug, I am prepared to prove by scientific theory and practical demonstration, that all the foregoing are cold, crushing facts."

And the Prowler called again this morning to say that the pesky bug had left his lip-linked affections on him last night—and the bug—died. Unless there are others, this will end it all.

UNCLE SAM'S HOT BATHS.

The Hot Springs of Arkansas—Via the Southern Railway.

LIGHTNING'S FATAL STROKE.

A Man and Two Horses Killed and Several Persons Injured.

Fayetteville, July 10—News was brought here Saturday of a lamentable catastrophe on Mr. John Kirkpatrick's plantation, in Gray's Creek township, in the Southern part of this county, whereby, during a thunder-storm, Andrew Murdock was killed, together with two mules, while Mrs. Murdoch, a little white boy and Henry Gilmore and a girl, the last two colored, were more or less stunned and injured.

During the prevalence of the storm the party, who were at work on the farm, took refuge under a large tree, under which it had been the custom for the hands to take the noonday meal. Mr. Murdock was killed instantly. Gilmore was restored to life, but is badly hurt and can hardly recover. Mrs. Murdoch was terribly burned on different parts of her body. The colored girl was burned on the foot, while the boy seems to have received serious internal injuries.—Special to Raleigh Post.

The farmer who keeps his plants buckwheat handy to the hives. He understands that to put flowers rich in honey where the bees can get them with least effort, means an increase in the quantity and quality of the honey gathered in the hives.

It is on this principle that Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery increases the quantity and quality of the nutrition of the body. The ingredients of this medicine are selected to fit the body and stomach with all essential materials for bodybuilding in a concentrated and assimilable form. They make the conditions under which the stomach and organs of digestion and nutrition must work, as easy as possible, and so reduce strain and waste. As the strength of the body is re-established disease is thrown off. It is due to this fact that persons with weak lungs, obstinate cough, bronchitis, and other diseases, which if neglected lead to consumption, find a complete cure by "Golden Medical Discovery."

If you build a nice residence here you are not certain that it will be occupied but you see very few vacant ones, so you build it on the faith you have in the town being able to support the investments.

If you the capacity of this tobacco market is vastly greater than its present business as is shown by the fact that the warehouses are doing a good business and still there are idle tobacco factories here. A new warehouse can be rented before a nail is driven, and at a paying rental. What more could an investor ask? Cheap warehouse property with a large capacity is what is needed.

Look at the present greatness of Winston, Durham and Danville; they are all monuments to King Tobacco. Do you suppose they would have ever achieved to such high standing with only two warehouses? The answer echoes back, "No." Neither will we. Now let us make a steady pull, a mighty pull, and a pull all together, and success will crown our efforts for there is always room at the top.

All Move Out of Santiago.

Santiago de Cuba, July 10—Gen Leonard Wood, the military governor, returned this morning from the United States and immediately began vigorous action to stamp out the yellow fever. He finds the situation more serious than he had anticipated. Tomorrow headquarters, as well as all the administrative departments, except the sanitary and a few immune clerks in the quartermasters' and commissary staff, will move to Songo, twenty miles north, on the railroad, a point about 1,000 feet above the sea level.

The paymaster has been ordered to suspend all payments to the Cuban troops until the fever has been stamped out, the special object of the order being to prevent the soldiers from drinking during the epidemic.

Many predict that there will be trouble when the United States troops are entirely removed from the city, as there are many hundreds of destitute Cuban soldiers already here. They are expecting government pay, and have been put off for a month, though for the best reasons.

Washington, D. C.

The Sapphire Country.

Along the cool southern slopes and table lands of the Blue Ridge mountains in Western North Carolina, at an average altitude of 3,000 feet, is a country full of delightful surprises to the tourist, sportsman and health-seeker. No other state contains so many clear, cold and wonderful picturesque streams, so many grand waterfalls, such wide sweeping mountain views, and such beautiful lakes as the Sapphire Country, where until recently there was no provision made for the accommodation of visitors to this delightful section. Now, however, entertainment is offered on Lake Sapphire, Lake Fairfield, and on the summit of Mt. Toxaway, the view from the lodge there being the most extensive of any mountain point of vantage in North Carolina.

Parties desiring to visit this beautiful country can purchase round trip tickets to Brevard, N. C., via Hendersonville, where coaches convey you over good roads making the drive one of extreme pleasure. For full information call on any agent Southern Railway, or write B. L. Vernon, traveling passenger agent, Charlotte, N. C., or W. A. Turk, general passenger agent, Washington, D. C.

Free Pills.

FREIGHT RATES TOO HEAVY.

Alleged Discrimination Against Charleston by Railroads.

THE CASE TAKEN UP YESTERDAY

At Washington—Against the Norfolk and Western and Other Railroad Companies.

Special to the TELEGRAM.

Washington, July 11—Before the Interstate Commerce Commission yesterday the case of the Bureau of Freight and Transportation of Charleston, S. C., against the Norfolk & Western Railway company, and other railroad companies for alleged discrimination in freight rates against Charleston, was taken up. When the case was called there were present Mr. John A. Smith, chairman of the Bureau of Freight and Transportation; Mr. Arthur Bryan, of Charleston, representing the complainants, and Mr. Edward Baxter, representing the defendants. Among others in attendance were Mr. S. F. Parrot, chairman of the Southeastern Freight Association, and Mr. J. F. Fitzgerald, chairman of the Associated Railroads of Virginia, besides several other railroad men, who will be called as witnesses during the hearing of the case.

The complainants allege, in brief, that notwithstanding the favorable situation of Charleston with reference to distance from the Ohio and Mississippi river points, or gateways, the rates charged therefrom by the railroads are greatly higher to Charleston than to Norfolk, and so much so that on numerous articles of freight the transportation cost to Charleston is as great as the direct cost to Charleston as the sum of the charges to Norfolk and the local charge from Norfolk to Charleston. The rates to Charleston are combination of the rate to Norfolk and the local charge from Norfolk to Charleston. The rates to Charleston are combination of the rate to Norfolk and the local charge from Norfolk to Charleston. The rates to Charleston are combination of the rate to Norfolk and the local charge from Norfolk to Charleston.

Ed Walker, whose home is in Seattle, Wash., and who has been visiting his parents in Winston for some time, passed through the city this morning returning home. He was accompanied by Frank Reid, son of D. S. Reid, of Winston, who will also engage in business in Seattle.

NARROWLY AVERTED.

Within an Ace of a Shocking and Fatal Accident.

What came near being a fatal and shocking accident was averted only by the merest chance at the Chestnut street crossing when the trains arrived at noon today. The Raleigh train and the Winston and Weldon train came up to their stopping place side by side, the Raleigh train barely a car length behind the other. At the above crossing a white girl about 16 years old, and her mother with an infant in her arms, came to the rear platform of the rear of the Winston and Weldon train, and the girl deliberately stepped off the moving train and towards the moving Raleigh train, and of course was thrown flat on the ground, and in scrambling to get her footing barely escaped the wheels of the Raleigh car. Her mother with the infant was just in the act of stepping off also when a gentleman grabbed her and held her. They were country people and had evidently never been on a train before. Conductors should look after such people and warn them not to be in a hurry about getting off the train.—Goldberg Argus.

The witness examined yesterday were Mrs. Parrot, who occupied most of the time during the morning session, and Fitzgerald, who took the stand during the afternoon.

Among prominent Virginia people in this city yesterday was Senator Daniel, who arrived from Lynchburg Sunday night, and who regaled at the Riggs House. He is accompanied to Washington by Gen. T. T. Muncord, who is also staying at the Riggs House.

Senator Daniel is of the opinion that Senator Martin will be reelected to the senate, and that before the time fixed for the meeting of the legislature that opposition to him will have practically died out. He does not know anything about the reported intention of Gov. Tyler to oppose Senator Martin, but the general opinion among other Virginia people is that the governor will not mix himself up in the race, especially if it will place him in the position of mixing up in a political struggle.
